Dear Resident

SUPPORT THIS WINTER

Winter is a difficult time for many people in our community, especially with the high cost of food and energy. I know many are worried about rising bills, which is why I am writing to you with the hope of providing some additional resources during these colder months. While I understand that not everyone will need this information, there are many individuals and families in Surrey Heath that will – so if you know of someone that may benefit from support this winter, please do pass this letter on.
